

Massive land deal still has no takers after year's silence

Business park land off the market and will be for foreseeable future

BY ANDREW WOODMAN REPORTS
BY NICK COX
REPORTS

THE SILENCE OF THE land market in Havant has been deafening for a year. The council's decision to take the site off the market has left investors and developers alike in a state of confusion. The council's decision to take the site off the market has left investors and developers alike in a state of confusion. The council's decision to take the site off the market has left investors and developers alike in a state of confusion.

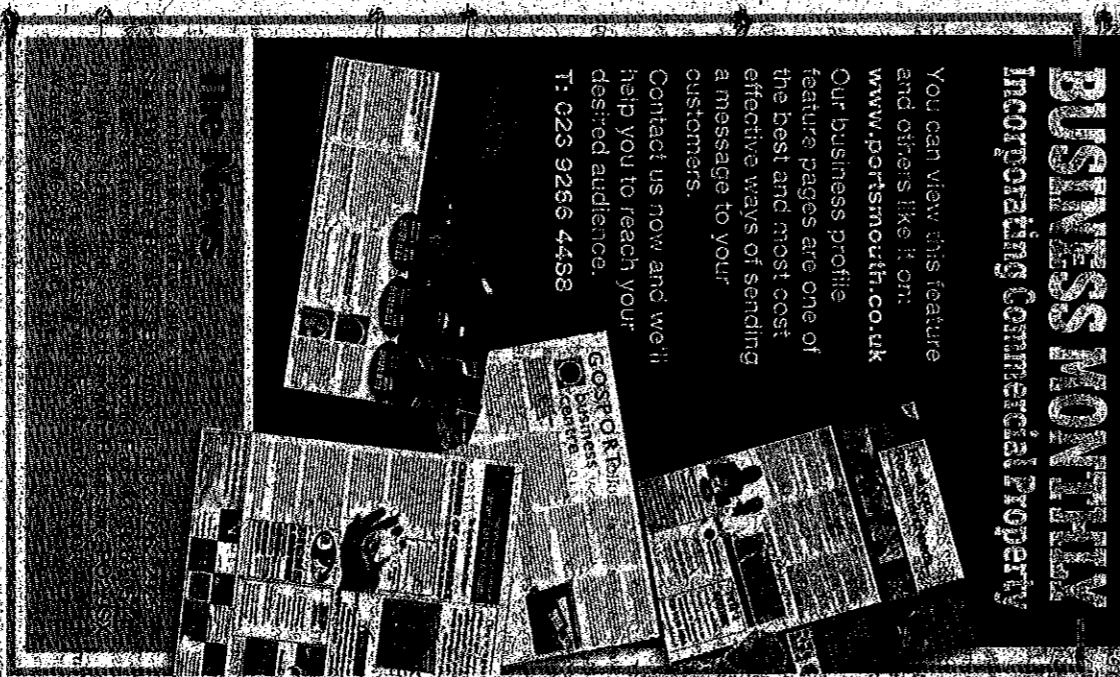

ROLLS-ROYCE Motor Cars has denied reports that it is planning to sell its luxury car brand. The company's CEO said that the company is focused on its core business and that it has no plans to sell the brand. The company's CEO said that the company is focused on its core business and that it has no plans to sell the brand.

BUSINESS MONTHLY

You can view this feature and others like it on: www.portsmouth.co.uk

Our business profile feature pages are one of the best and most cost effective ways of sending a message to your customers.

Contact us now and we'll help you to reach your desired audience.
 T: 023 9256 4458

Post of honour for BAE chief

BAE head of Portsmouth's warship-building operations has taken up the honorary top spot in the maritime industry's lobby. Alan Johnston has taken over from Paul Lester as Honorary President of the Society of Maritime Industries. Mr Johnston is managing director of Portsmouth's BAE Systems Surface Ships and Vessel Repair and Maintenance. He said: 'I am a firm believer in the VT-Group's

Farmers' produce is coming to Port Solent this weekend

AHAMPSHIRE farmers market is set to come to Port Solent on Saturday July 17. Hampshire Farmers' Markets offers food within the country, or 10 miles of its borders. The arrival at Port Solent is part of the Venue's Open Kitchen food festival over that weekend. Alex Handford, farmers' markets business development manager, said:

SHARE PRICES

Prices at last night's close

AIM	+5	128	0
BAE Systems	-1	317	2
Belinfante	+1	14	0
BE	+34	62	41
Biffaward	-2	75	1
Biff	-1	36	0
Cable TV	-1	126	0
Centrica	+1	181	4
Chemring	-4	182	3
De La Rue	0	796	0
Eaton Corp (S)	-1	796	0
First Group	+6	50	0
Wethers	-1	50	0

The FTSE-100 index closed up 34.08 at 5167.02

For more business news go to portsmouth.co.uk/business