Dear Havant Planning,

I object to the proposed plan by Markfield Developments to build on the horse field, south of the A259/Havant Road, Emsworth.

The plot is within the National Landscape and any decision to build on this land is therefore not legally compliant and is unsound.

Furthermore, it has come to my attention that there are plans which have been hidden from the public to build more houses (300) on a second horse field west of Brook Gardens. Once more, this land is within the National Landscape and any construction would be illegal.

Yours,
Claire Plimmer
