

THE URBAN DISTRICT COUNCIL OF HAVANT AND WATERLOO

BYELAWS

Made under Section 81 of the Public Health Act, 1936 by the Urban District Council of Havant and Waterloo with respect to nuisances in the Urban District of Havant and Waterloo.

B R W GOFTON
Town Hall
Havant

For preventing the keeping of animals so as to be prejudicial to health.

- (1) No person shall keep any swine within one hundred feet of a dwelling-house, unless the place in which the swine are kept is in as clean a condition as is reasonably practicable.
- (2) No person shall keep any swine, or deposit any swine dung, on any place within fifty feet of a dwelling house:

Provided that this byelaw shall not apply -

- (i) Where the place on which the swine are kept or the dung is deposited, is not within the same curtilage as the dwellinghouse, and such place was being lawfully used for that purpose at the time when the dwellinghouse was erected and has been continuously so used since that time; or
  - (ii) For a period of twelve months from the date hereof where
    - (a) the dwellinghouse was erected before the swine were so kept, or the dung was so deposited, and
    - (b) such place was being lawfully used for such purpose at the date hereof and continues to be so used during those twelve months.
- (3) Any person who keeps a horse, ass, mule or donkey or any cattle or swine in a building or structure which is within fifty feet of any dwellinghouse other than that which he occupies himself shall provide in connection with that building or structure -
- (a) a drain which effectively conveys all urine and liquid filth and refuse from the building or structure into a sewer or cesspool; and
  - (b) a suitable receptacle for solid filth which complies with the following requirements:-
    - (i) its bottom or floor shall be above the surface of the adjacent ground

- (ii) it shall be so constructed and maintained that the contents cannot escape or soak away;
- (iii) it shall be equipped with an effective cover, which shall be kept in position except when filth is being placed in or removed from it;
- (iv) its contents shall be removed at least once a week.

PENALTIES

- (4) Every person who shall offend against any of the foregoing byelaws shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding five pounds and in the case of a continuing offence to a further fine not exceeding forty shillings for each day during which the offence continues after conviction therefore.

The Common Seal of the Urban District Council of Havant and Waterloo was hereunto affixed on the Second day of February 1962 in the presence of:
