

How your Council Tax is spent

Based on a Band D property, during 2024/25 the amount you will pay will be £2,110.36. Havant Borough Council only receives 11% of that amount. That's just £232.82 a year.

Here's where your £232.82 goes ..

| Service                    | £232.82 |
|-----------------------------------|----------------|
| Waste Services                    | £53.63         |
| Street Cleansing                  | £52.29         |
| Open Spaces                       | £28.16         |
| Planning Services                 | £20.81         |
| Democratic Services               | £17.02         |
| Housing                           | £13.21         |
| Regeneration and Economic develop | £12.09         |
| Homelessness                      | £9.17          |
| Community Safety                  | £9.58          |
| Climate                           | £2.40          |
| Electoral Services                | £9.50          |
| CELT                              | £5.87          |
| Private Sector Housing            | £1.60          |
| Health Wellbeing Development      | £6.21          |
| Community Development             | £7.10          |
| Community Grants & Funding        | £5.80          |
| Food Safety                       | £4.84          |
| Environmental Health              | £17.30         |
| Planning Enforcement              | £3.17          |
| Building Control                  | £2.56          |
| Emergency Planning                | £2.62          |
| Animal Welfare                    | £3.03          |
| Pest Control                      | £1.46          |
| Arboriculture Services            | £1.44          |
| Licensing                         | £0.57          |
| Health and Safety                 | £3.31          |
| Youth Development                 | £0.00          |
| Investment Property               | -£16.63        |
| Traffic & Enforcement             | -£47.87        |
| Civic Representation              | £2.59          |
|                                   | £232.82 |

